

LANDOWNE

September - October, 1972.

A Note of Welcome -

It is customary for the Master of the College to use space in the first Newsletter to extend a greeting to new members and to welcome back the old ones. I sincerely hope that everyone of you will enjoy this academic year and that you will emerge from it replete with happy memories of it and laden with honors and scholarships. A word of advice. To survive the University game, one has to plan one's days rigorously. But the nights, one can leave them to chance.

Sincerely,

Barry F. Beardsmore.

Elections -

A bye-election to fill vacancies on the 1972-73 College Council will be held on Wednesday, October 4. Positions to be filled include those of Women's Residence Representative, Athletics Co-ordinator and Non-Resident Representative. Further information may be obtained from the nomination form attached to this Newsletter or from any current member of Council. Nominations will close on Friday, September 29 at 4:45 p.m.

A full Council is necessary for the best implementation of services for our members; I would hope that you would give serious consideration to participating in this activity.

ACTIVITIES -

Movies - The Lansdowne Fall Film Series will feature four suspense melodramas, including two of Alfred Hitchcock's most popular productions. The first - TOPKAPI - will be shown on Sunday, September 24 at 7:30 in Mac 144. This color film, in which Peter Ustinov's comic performance won him an Academy Award, features a brilliantly sustained extended robbery sequence wherein a gang of thieves attempts to steal a valuable necklace from a burglar-proof museum. Also starring Melina Mercouri.

Other films in the Fall series will include Hitchcock's NORTH BY NORTHWEST (October 29), with Cary Grant, and PSYCHO (December 3), with Anthony Perkins and Janet Leigh, and the production of John Fowles' THE COLLECTOR (November 19), with Terrence Stamp and Samantha Eggar. Admission will be 75¢. Total attendance at the eight 1971-72 films was 627, resulting in a loss of just over $50.00.

The Spring series is tentatively scheduled as a history of film comedy with features of Charlie Chaplin, The Marx Brothers and the Beatles already confirmed. I would urge you to support this worthwhile and entertaining program. If anyone would like to help out - by making posters, selling tickets, etc. - in return for free admission, please see me or leave your name in the General Office.

ATHLETICS

Jackman Trophy - The mighty musclemen of Lansdowne College soundly thrashed the Craigdarroch athletic contingent to win last year's Jackman Trophy competition 17 points - 15 points. Lansdowne's points came from 1st and 3rd place finishes in the hockey series (12) plus winning the All-Star game (5 points), Craigdarroch got 8 points for 2nd and 4th place finishes in hockey and 7 points for winning the golf tournament. All golfers in Lansdowne College are urged to begin practice now to straighten out their slices and hooks so we can rectify last year's stunning upset on the golf links.

Intramurals - Lansdowne hopes to enter teams in the University Intramural competition in men's indoor soccer and floor hockey. Soccer competition is scheduled for October 12 and 19 at 7:30 p.m. in the Gym, and floor hockey every Thursday at 7:30 from October 26 through November 30. Competition is open to all interested students and sign-up sheets are located in the College Office. Come out and don't pass up this opportunity to kick your friends in the shins.
